FAMILY GROUP RECORD-196
DOCUMENTATION

HUSBAND Nehemiah H. RUSSELL-740 Yr of Birth 1784
WIFE Mary Ann LAMSON-741 Yr of Birth 1785

Russell Chandler, widow of the late W. M. Chandler, died at her home, 126 Second Avenue, at 11:15 o'clock last night, after an illness of one month, at the age of 54 years. The deceased was born near Syracuse, NY, June 24, 1840, and came with her parents to Iowa in 1843. They settled in Clinton county, making it their home. Thirty-one years ago she was married to W. M. Chandler, and to them four children were born. Two sons survive her. Lester & William, both of this city. She also leaves three brothers, Thomas & Amherst of this city, & Adna Russell of California. Her husband preceded her to the grave one year & seven months ago. She was a kind & affectionate mother & a patient sufferer, & will be deeply mourned by her sorrowing relatives & friends. The funeral will take place from the residence on Second avenue Sunday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock, followed by internment at Camanche cemetery. (Clinton Herald, Tri-Weekly Edition, Saturday, October 20, 1894.) (Diary entry, October 19, 1894) "Roxie died last night--4 o'clock--funeral will be Sunday half past one at the house. Will be buried in Camanche cemetery."

Sunday morning at 10:30 Albert J. Thomas, who resides at 635 Camanche avenue, attempted to take his life by cutting his throat with a razor. The cut which extends from below the right ear around the angle of the jaw was not deep enough to sever the carotid artery. Dr. G. A. Smith was called and found the man already unconscious from the loss of blood. The wound was dressed and restoratives applied, and the man will live although it was necessary to guard him from accomplishing his destruction after regaining consciousness, Sunday afternoon.

Mr. Thomas had not been in good health for some time and had been unable to sleep for several days. This brought on a temporary insanity during which the deed was committed. He is about 30 years of age and the son of Wm. Thomas with whom he resides. He was feeling quite comfortable Monday and deeply regretted the act. The indications point to a speedy recovery.

POLICE COURT.

The thirteen year old son of Patrick McDermott ran away Sunday and was apprehended by the police in Sterling and held there until brought home Monday night.

Sunday evening at 8 o'clock Officer Timothy arrested Etta Nelson at the Carpenter place on east Main street, and had her placed in jail over night. Monday morning information was filled against her charging her with vagrancy and prostitution, although she is but thirteen years of age. Information was also filed against Alfred Carpenter of the Carpenter place charging him with criminal association with her. A preliminary examination was held Monday at which his bonds were placed $500, which not being furnished he was taken to the county jail to await the April term of court.

STORE BURGLARIZED.

Some time during Saturday night the store of J. C. Claussen at the corner of Camanche and Center avenues was broken into and a quantity of goods stolen. Entrance was gained by breaking the glass in the front door and climbing through the aperature. Considerable chewing and smoking tobacco, chewing gum and candy were taken. Mr. Claussen estimated the loss from property destroyed and goods stolen to amount to $60.

Information was filed Sunday before Police Judge Fink charging John Melvin, Joe. Melvin, Patrick Flanagan and Mike McLaughlin with the crime. Warrants were issued for their arrest and a part of the stolen property was recovered.

The case came up for a hearing before Judge Fink Monday afternoon, Neighbors Force an Entrance to Residence and Find Four Dead Bodies—Gas Was Escaping—Evidence in the Rooms of a Debauch—Little Girl Sought Help.

Philadelphia, Feb. 20.—Mrs. Charles Fahrenkamp, aged 33 years, her two children, Florence and William, aged respectively ten and nine years, and an unknown woman, aged about 35 years, were found dead Sunday in a room in Mrs. Fahrenkamp's home, 1416 North Fifty-second street. The gas was turned on and life had apparently been extinct for several days. Scattered about the first floor were remnants of cigars and cigarettes and empty beer and whisky bottles. The bodies were found by a next-door neighbor who had forced an entrance to the house. Mrs. Fahrenkamp was lying on the floor and her daughter near by. The unknown woman and the boy were in bed. The last heard from the inmates of the house was on Thursday night, when the piano was kept playing until a late hour. On Friday morning Mrs. Wilson, living next door, was asked by Florence to assist her in raising her mother from the floor, where the child said she was sleeping. Mrs. Wilson told her she was unable to do so, and suggested that the girl cover her mother and allow her to continue sleeping. The two women and the boy, it is believed, were then dead, and from the position of the girl, who occupied another room, it is thought that she was overcome by the gas while trying to lift her mother. Mrs. Fahrenkamp's husband, who is a traveling salesman, left home about a week ago on business for his firm.

TO RECONCILE DIFFERENCES.

United States Government May Sanction the Floating of Bonds to Pay Cuban Soldiers.

Washington, Feb. 20.—Efforts are making, with every prospect of success, to reconcile the radical element among the Cubans to the proposition of the United States government to pay the soldiers of the Cuban cause $3,000,000. This is expected to be accomplished through a rather sweeping authorization by the United States government for the incurment of a considerable loan to make good the deficiency between the sum the United States agrees to pay to the troops and the sum the Cuban leaders believe to be the smallest that can be paid with benefit and due regard to justice. So far, the proposition has not taken official shape here, but the administration has been quietly sounded by the Cuban contingent, who have expressed gratification at the prospects. Gen. Gomez himself is expected to broach the plan formally when he begins his conferences with Gen. Brooke in Havana. Gomez arrived Wednesday at Matanzas, making his way very slowly towards the capital. What is proposed is that the United States shall sanction the floating of bonds by the Cuban municipalities or provinces to the amount of

CALLED TO REST.

R V. JAMES M. FERRIS DIED LAST NIGHT.

A Man who had Given the Years of his Life to Christian Ministry.

☐And yet, the end came unexpectedly.

If there be anything in religion, and millions of the mortals of this world have firm faith in the doctrine of God; if there be the reward of an eternal life in Heaven to those who labor for the brotherhood of mankind and the glory of God; if love of fellow man be rewarded on this life by leaving a name behind; if being a loving father and idolizing husband leaves an ineffaceable tablet in the hearts of the members of the family circles; if being just and generous to all brings reward, then the angels of the Heaven must be singing songs of rejoicing this morning over a soul returned to its Maker.

Lying cold and still in the chamber of death this morning at the beautiful home of Mrs. Peck on Eighth avenue, are the mortal remains of her father, the Reverend James M. Ferris.

That the death was really unexpected, will make the grief of the mourning family all the harder to bear. It was unexpected, though he had been in feeble health for some weeks. It is true several weeks ago physicians in consultation told him that he had but ten days at the most to live. He called the master of his Masonic lodge to his bedside and arranged for the final laying away of his body. He called others and arranged his worldly affairs. His daughter and wife he talked to and they said to him then, Father you will get well, now that you have brought your mind to rest by believing that death is near, and it seemed that the words were prophetic, for the next day his appetite returned and from that day until but yesterday he seemed to gain strength. He recovered so he could move himself about in bed, could raise himself up and be lifted from one bed to another, and was very cheerful. Even the attending physician seemed to have hopes of his being up [illegible] ions; came to each other with their burdens of life and a strong bond of sympathy was between them. Another child, James Ferris, of Davenport, completes the family circle, excepting the Misses Peck and the little grandson.

Added to the qualities that made him successful as a minister of the gospel, was an endless store of humor, and many a party has he enlivened by some droll witticism, some jolly story, and if the story was a joke on himself he loved it all the more and told it with greater fervor. His word was his bond: his hand clasp his token of friendship.

But life has ended for him, and the mystery of the hereafter is now as an open book.

X RUSSELL.

One of the oldest residents of this section passed away at his home near Folletts Thursday evening at an advance age, leaving a large circle of friends to mourn him. Deceased was Thomas A. Russell, a prosperous farmer and widely known citizen. He was born in New York in 1836, and came to Iowa as early as 1842, since Hudson, living on the old homestead which time he had resided here. He leaves a wife and two children, Mrs Jessie and Willis H. Russell. The funeral will occur from the residence Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock, followed by interment in the Shaff cemetery at 2 o'clock. There is general sorrow in the neighborhood, where he passed so much of his life, over his demise.

PETERSON.

At 11 o'clock Thursday morning occurred the death of John H. Peterson, at 1036 Camanche avenue. Deceased was eighty-three years of age, was born in Germany and had lived in this city the past sixteen years. Old age was the cause of death. He was the uncle of Louis Broderson and Mrs. Detlef Freund, both of this city. The funeral will occur at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

MURRAY.

The funeral of the late Loretta Murray will occur from St. Mary's church at 2 Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Murray was taken to Mt. St. Claire Academy yesterday, where the sisters will endeavor to win her back to health.

COUNTY OFFICERS.

AUDITORS AND TREASURERS MEET IN DES MOINES.

County Treasurer Lubbers and Auditor Rutenbeck Present.

The convention of the county auditors and county treasurers of Iowa met in Des Moines on the 15th and 16th of this month. Clinton county was represented by County Treasurer Paul Lubbers and Auditor Reutenbeck.

The State Association of county auditors met in the club rooms of the Savery hotel. Pres. J. S. McQuiston of Polk county, presided over the meeting. The convention devoted much of its time to the discussion of the new revenue law. Should counties have their own hospitals for the insane, was another subject largely discussed.

The association elected the following officers for the ensuing year: president, John S. McQuiston, of Polk; vice president, C. R. Lyon, of Dallas; secretary, J. T. Carey, Crawford; treasurer, J. E. Cherry, Union. These officers with H. L. Marshall of Guthrie, were named the executive committee.

A legislative committee consisting of one delegate from each congressional district was elected. This committee will meet again at the state fair. A legislative committee then elected a sub committee for the purpose of representing the county auditors before the state legislature.

The members in convention called in a body on Gov. Shaw and the state officers, who showed them many courtesies.

The County Treasurers' Association, of Iowa, held their meeting at the club rooms of the Commercial Exchange last Wednesday and Thursday. President A. R. Cherry, of Iowa City, opened the meeting, which is the sixth annual one in the history of the association. The association was organized in January, 1894, at the instance of Paul Lubbers, present treasurer of Clinton county.

OBITUARY

A. W. RUSSELL.

A. W. Russell, aged 82 years, and one of the earliest settlers in the country around Folletts, and the last surviving pioneer in that vicinity, died last night at his home at 10 o'clock following an illness lasting since Thursday. Mr. Russell had been tinkering about the farm rather strenuously for a man of his age and he took sick with a high fever, the results of which could not be overcome.

Mr. Russell is survived by his wife and one daughter, Mrs. Walter Dannatt of Low Moor.

MERCURY IN SUDDEN DOWN GRADE SLIP

Our old friend, the Weather Man, kept up his fine assortment of weather which he has been handing the people in this country for the past several months last night when he dished out some real temperatures to remind one that today was the first day of fall. He started in last night at an early hour following an afternoon of cold chilly winds. The mercury began to fall with such rapidity that one's thoughts immediately turned to winter clothes and wraps. During the twenty-four hours yesterday the temperature dropped a total of thirty-three degrees. Not satisfied with this drop it went down another additional ten degrees during the night last night, reaching the forty mark, or eight degrees above the freezing point, before 7 o'clock this morning. No reports on any frost were obtainable this morning and it is thought that there has been no harm done any of the crops.

HAY COMES UNDER PURE FOOD RULES

And now it is the equines whose substance is to be doled out in correctly weighted and tagged bundles, according to the latest advices from the office of the state food and dairy commissioner. Complaint that some dealers are putting up sixty pound bales and selling them for eighty pounds has led to the edict that the weight on each bale of hay must be tagged unless sold in ton lots.

VILLA MOVING INTO SONORA

(Associated Press Leased Wire.)

Washington, Sept. 23.—Advices to the state department today confirm reports that General Villa is moving all available forces in northern Mexico into the state of Sonora, with the evident purpose of attacking the Carranza troops there under command of General Calles.

About 100 Americans have left Torreon in two special cars, according to state department reports today. Only twenty Americans and nearly all other foreigners are reported to have remained.

On September 20, it was said there remained in Chihuahua 87 Americans, of whom 28 were expected to leave yesterday.

GIVES DETAILS OF HAITI FIGHTING

(Associated Press Leased Wire.)

Washington, Sept. 23.—Details of fighting near Gonaives, Haiti, last week in which six natives were killed, reached the navy department yesterday from Rear Admiral Caperton.

"Admiral Caperton," says a statement issued by the navy department, "directed that the railroad be opened from Gonzales to Ennrey. The Cacos attempted to defeat this movement by destroying the railroad tracks outside of Gonaives. A detachment of 24 marines was sent out along the railroad and encountered about fifty Cacos, who opened fire at short range, from barricades across the railroad tracks. The fire was returned by the American troops and the Cacos were driven clear of

ANOTHER "PLACE" AS FINE AS THE ORIGINAL.

It Adjoins Van Deventer Place on the South and is High and Dry

Clinton is to have another Van Deventer Place.

This assertion alone is enough to convey to every person, the least familiar with the finest residence portion of the city that it means a great deal towards advancement.

The original VanDeventer Place has during the past few years been fixed up in such metropolitan style that it has come to be the admiration of all who desire an excellent location for a fine residence.

But the city is to have another just such a place, the great demand for lots in that portion of the city apparently justifying the move.

The Age reporter has heard rumors of this for the past few days, but it was not until yesterday that he came into possession of the facts. Then he learned that Kelly Bros., owing to the fact that the have recently added a new line of parlor furniture to their already long catalogue of fine goods, and that the increase of trade upon their goods had become so great as to require their personal and undivided attention to the furniture factory, had turned over what is known as Kelly Bros'. addition to the city of Clinton to those indomitable pushers, the Walsh Brothers, who would control the sale of lots for the coming season.

This addition is located immediately southwest of the now famous Van Deventer Place, between Seventh and Eighth avenues, on the Bluff Road. Its natural location, being high and dry, together with the artificial improvements which will be supplied, is bound to make this place one sought after by people who desire a home away from the noise and bustle of the business part of the city.

Being desirous of giving the public the particulars of the new place the reporter called upon Messrs. Walsh city, and yet be away from the dust, noise and turmoil.

To those who are not already perfectly familiar with the place, we would say that it is but ten blocks from the postoffice and is easily accessible to the business part of the city by means of the electric street railway, which runs through the addition.

With the tremendous strides the city is making towards becoming the first city of Iowa, far-seeing people recognize the importance of locating their residences a little further out than has been done heretofore, as is clearly shown by the numerous palatial dwellings which were built in that immediate neighborhood last year.

With this addition fixed up in the same order of elegance as Van Deventer place, which it certainly will be, as Walsh Bros. told the reporter it would be, the Age looks to see those fifty-six lots picked up in a hurry.

Verily, Clinton is in the push this spring.

WILLIAM CHANDLER DEAD.

He Passed Away at Eight O'clock Saturday Morning.

William Chandler, Sr., departed this life at his home, 126 Second avenue, at 8 o'clock Saturday morning, aged fifty-two years and eight months.

William Chandler was born in Peru, New York, on June 27, 1841, and came to Clinton county with his parents over forty years ago, settling near Camanche, where his aged mother yet resides. Thirty years ago he was married to Miss Roxana Russell, of Camanche, and in 1871 they came to this city where they have since resided.

Several years ago in December last Mr. Chandler suffered a stroke of paralysis, from which he never fully recovered, the peculiar disease gradually working upon his system until the vital spark of life was extinguished.

Of the immediate family a devoted wife and two sons—Lester and William—are left to mourn.

The funeral will be held from the residence, 126 Second avenue, at 10 o'clock Monday morning, followed by internment in the cemetery at Camanche.

July 8, 1999

Dear friends,

Sorry It has taken me so long to get back to you but I have been working extra hours and also trying to help where I can in organizing and planning for Low Moor Days this week end. We always serve a chicken dinner and it takes a lot of planning and calling for helpers etc. Only hope it isn't quite as hot as it has been in the 90's and much humidity.

Betty I did get into the court house to check the probates and the wills and could find nothing for the Russell family. Back than it was more often than not not to have a recorded will. They probably kept them home under their mattress. I have searched everything I know to search, death, burial, birth, wills etc and just come up with nothing.

Also Betty, I hesitate to cash your check, that most certainly never ever is necessary. I enjoy the researching only sorry I didn't find any thing. If ever I do you will hear about it.

So thanks so much and we will keep trying.

Sincerely,

6441 Lincolnway • Clinton, Iowa 52732 • Phone (319) 242-4145

Hi Betty,

I will try to find your requested family obituaries. Remember me? You had lunch at my farm house a few years ago. I also work at the Camanche Public Library. Mary McKenrick is fine - celebrated her 100th last year. Still living in her house in Low Moor.

Dear Marian:

You are a great researcher. What great information you found about the Shaffs and the Parkhursts.

I'm sorry to be slow in responding to your great package of materials, but we were in Columbia, MD, for two weeks visiting daughter, Paula, and her family. It took us three days to recover from the heat and humidity. We were in Washington, D.C. on Monday for a tour--98 degrees and a red alert for dirty air. We didn't know how bad it was until we got back to Columbia. And, too, we're not as young as we used to be. I do believe that our next trip to Maryland will be in April or September.

Marian, I'm trying to find the letter that accompanied the materials that you sent, but it is temporarily misplaced. We had two-weeks of mail to go through when we got home. I will find it as soon as I mail this.

I have another serious question in addition to those I have already posed. Roxanna Russell married William M. Chandler, born New York. William Chandler's obituary stated the following: "William Chandler was born in Peru, New York, on June 27, 1841, and came to Clinton county with his parents over forty years ago, settling near Camanche, where his aged mother yet resides." From the Clinton Herald, Saturday, March 19, 1893.

I have not found a Chandler who fits with William. On the 1860 census, he was counted with the Robert Wilks or Nilks or Milks family. Wm. was 18 years old, a farm hand, born New York. In a reasonable search for answers, I'm beginning to wonder if his mother remarried. I have seen relatives referred to as farm labor or farm hands. I've wondered if Mrs Wilks? was William's mother. His mother was still alive in 1893, but she wasn't identified by name.

I believe you mentioned probate records in your last letter, but I wouldn't feel right asking you to do extensive research unless we set a price for the search.

You have been so helpful, and I don't want to take advantage of your research skills.

I'm enclosing a check for $5 to cover postage and copy costs for the last mailing.

Thanks again,
Betty
Betty & Ed, too

Sunday May 9, 1999

Dear Betty and Ed,

Recieved your letter and many many thanks for the check. You most certainly didn't need to do that. I love doing research so enjoyed the small amount of time I did for you even though wasn't as successful as I had hoped to be.

Records back as far as Mary Shaff's just aren't there. The papers had only local happenings and than not much of that. Course the paper was only about 4 or 5 pages in length.

The Clinton Library has all the papers on micro film and several readers. I went in one night after I got off from the Camanche Library at 6:00 and spent until closing 9:00 just reading the old papers. Our Camanche Library doesn't have the service and my little boss told me if they did have that would be about where she would find me and all I would get done. We have several requests from people around the country. In fact I am working on the Bogart family now for a gentleman from Colorado. His family too are buried in the Rosehill cemetery in Camanche.

Another ironic happening---I still work with the Camanche Senior Citizens Meal site and one of our ladies was telling me she was going to the State Historical building in IowaCity to do some family research. When I asked her for what family name she said LEACH---. Her husbands grandmother was Jane (Jenny) Leach married to Patrick Finnigan. She was born in Cedar County (next county to us) had 8 brothers and sisters and is buried in St. Mary's cemetery Muscatine. Any of this sound familiar to you? I meant to ask where was Ed born, in this area? Interesting isn't it? And Leach isn't all that popular name in this area.

Mothers Day---had a call from our son in Florida, a call from our daughter in Burlington saying they would all be home next week end due to working schedules. Our younger son just west of us came bringing in a beautiful long stem rose and 2 new trees he planted for me. So good day.

Well If I can come up with any thing more will send it on. I never quit looking. Also I am thinking of purchasing a book for our library with the money you sent. But please don't think it is any trouble as I love doing it and always looking for an excuse.

I will be looking for that E Mail at the library.

Sincerely,

Marian + Don

Subject: Obituaries for Friend, Amherst, Thomas A. Russell, and Mary A. Shaff

Ladies & Gentlemen:

We are doing family history research, and we find that it is important to obtain the obituaries of siblings of our ancestors if possible.

My husband's great grandmother, Roxana Russell, married William M. Chandler. They lived in Camanche and Clinton area most of their lives. They are buried in Camanche.

If possible, we would like to obtain the obituaries for Friend A. Russell, born February 3, 1825, died April 23, 1877, spouse Mary E. Gilbert; Thomas A. Russell, born March 11, 1836, died February 16, 1899; Amherst Russell, born December 1831, died September 20, 1915, spouse Ann M. Willet; and Mary A. Shaff, wife of Heman B. Shaff, born April 1816, died 1 June 1856. Friend, Thomas and Amherst Russell and Mary A. Shaff were all siblings of Roxana Chandler. They all died in Camanche.

If it is possible to obtain copies of these obituaries, please let me know the cost; and I will send my check immediately. We appreciate your help in this matter.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Betty Leach, 7541 Oak Leaf Drive, Santa Rosa, CA 95409-6263

Subject: World Family Tree Submitter Information

Dear World Family Tree Customer:

The purpose of the World Family Tree Submitter Information Service is to allow customers like you to contact the individuals with whom you share common family lines. We hope that the address(es) provided at the bottom of this letter will allow you to contact a distant relative and discover more about your ancestry.

We love to hear how the World Family Tree Project is helping people with their family research, so if you're among the lucky ones who find a connection to the World Family Tree, please let us know by sending e-mail to stories@familytreemaker.com. We will post some of the letters on our Web site, so your story may inspire others to continue with their family research! As more people realize the benefits of searching the World Family Tree for their ancestors, more people will contribute their family trees to the World Family Tree Project. And, the more people who participate, the greater everyone's chances of finding a connection to the World Family Tree!

If you haven't already contributed your family tree to the World Family Tree Project, we encourage you to do so soon. As a World Family Tree submitter you would reap many benefits: the chance to help others— your distant relatives—trace their family trees, the possibility that you'll meet these distant relatives through the Submitter Information Service, the preservation of your family information on CD-ROM, and much more. If you need more reasons for contributing to the World Family Tree Project, see our complete list at http://www.familytreemaker.com/topten.html.

Below are the name(s) and address(es) you requested. Best wishes as you continue with your exciting hunt for ancestors!

The Submitter for Volume 3, Tree 1798 provided the following contact address:

JOHN T SHAFF

Dear John:

Thank you for your letter dated April 18, 1999 and for the pictures. The stone for Nehemiah and Mary Russell does look newer than the 1850's; and if it was placed much later, it could easily explain the discrepancy in dates.

I checked for Wilma Russell in Wichita, Kansas; but no match was found. Maybe she is listed under a married name. I also checked for Milton Parkhurst as we felt the name might have carried on in the family. I found three Milton Parkhursts in the United States. One lived in AZ; one in NM, and one in WA State. When I have time, I will send them a generic letter.

When we looked at your family tree, we realized you needed the following information. We have listed below the vital record type of data that we received from Mary McKenrick.

Births

Nehemiah H Russell	August 24th 1789
Mary A. Russell	July 25th 1795	(The 9 was originally an 8 but was changed to 9)

Friday May 21

Dear Betty and Ed,

Enclosed find the info that I came across at the library in several different books and pamphlets. Sorry I couldn't find a thing about Mary Shaff.

The information on the Parkhurst family was very interesting and probably all family members. I have a friend that use to live in Le Claire and she is still very active in their lodge and church there and told me there are no Parkhurst's to her knowledge living there any more. It was interesting to read that a section of what is now Le Claire was at one time called Parkhurst.

As to the county government offices I have done a great deal of research through the Clinton County Clerk----Court House, Administration Bldg. Clinton, Iowa 52732 phone 319-243-6210.

If there was something you would like for me to search I could and often do go to the court house building and spend some time. Jest let me know. They use to look different things up for you but they aren't quite as ready to help as they use to be, don't know if they are short of help or changed their policy.

I'm not off to often on Fridays but would be happy to when I do have the day off. Just let me know. Hope the enclosed is helpful.

Sincerely,

Dear Cousins

First, thank you for the pretty scarf, and finding out I had cousins I never knew, it was all so wonderful and the time too short.

Our picture came out in the Davenport Sun. paper this week.

There are other things in my store rooms such as a small picture album, of course I do not know who some of them are, but when you come again will try to do better.

I keep watch of the weather map, I believe you get more rain in your part of the country than have, it is surprising how well the corn looks with so little rain.

This is a very hot 4th of July, am staying home, trying to keep cool in 85 or 90° weather.

Hope all of you had a safe trip home, and am looking forward to a longer visit from you soon.

Your cousin

through augur holes. The furniture had to be a part of the equipment of log houses fourteen feet square and ten feet high with an upstairs that could be reached only by a crude ladder. Yet twenty-nine people lived there together that first winter in Iowa. They slept on the floor or on slabs that had holes bored through them so that ropes could be stretched across and blankets placed on them. The head of the family had plenty of work and with six men teamed all winter long hauling hardware for settlers. Indians dwelt peacefully and did not make any trouble until some avaricious white people got into authority. The settlement was struck by the Camanche tornado, June 3, 1860 and what was known as the first home, a log house, barns, sheds were swept away. A limb was torn from a tree and thrust through the door of the house in which eighteen had taken shelter in a room thirteen feet square. None was injured. Over at the Smith place the boys had been pitching horseshoes and got in out of the storm. The younger brother, who was ill in bed, was killed when the house fell. The Barber's hired man had been watching the storm coming and he and William Barber ran for the house. When they saw they could not make it they ran to some butternut trees and each grabbed a tree. When the hired man let loose after the storm had passed he had nothing on his body but the wristbands and collar of his shirt. His dash into the house did not create as much excitement as it would have under any other conditions.

Mr. Barber said "People who were at Camanche tell me that the river was blown dry and a water spout carried over into Illinois."

Life was not at all dull in those days for there were ball games and dances when one of the Harringtons could be persuaded to fiddle for the young folks.

Shaff Settlement

Before the year 1840 travelers were coming into Iowa in large numbers and among them was a young fellow named Heman B. Shaff. Practically all the men were young fellows in their teens or early twenties each expressing land hunger as the urge that drew them to the prairies. This youth's father had died when he was but five years of age and later when he told his mother of his intention to go west she said she and the rest of the family would come also. Their home was in Sodus, New York state, and they came as far as Illinois but when young Shaff learned that he could get land just across the river for $1.25 an acre instead of $5 in Illinois he said he would come to the land of the Ioways. A man told him just what to do. Said there was some handsome land just west of Camanche with wood and water, a creek running through the land and a spring near a level place for a house.

The young man took up a claim for land in section 2, Township 81, Range 5 in November 1837. Then he went back to Illinois to stay for the winter with the family. In 1838 he established his claim and built a log cabin. His mother died soon after that and [illegible] went to New York for his bride, Miss Mary Russell, a native of Vermont. They had five children, an infant deceased early, Lucy who married Garrett Vandevere, Mary A. who became the bride of John Wolfe, Emeline who married John Vandevere and John who wed Miss Jennie Dripps. The senior Shaff died in 1904 and John Shaff passed away twelve years later leaving his widow and three children, Mary, now Mrs. Robert Adams of Los Angeles, Calif., J.O. and Heman, both residing on the original acres.

Soon after the Shaff home was established land was given for a school named Sodus for the New York village. The first log cabin was built on what is now the left side of the road toward Folletts. Although the young man wanted to buy land in 1837 it was not in the market then so the next spring he and three other men whose names were Folletts, Wood and Ketchum, went to Dubuque to get land. They carried gold in their belts as the government would not take any other money. They stood in line in the land office and when they slept one stood guard for thieves were also in that place. Eventually they returned to the location. Near was a heap of quarried rock that had been carefully ranked and no one knew the name of the earlier homesteader. Part of that rock went into the John Shaff home. Later two homes were built and are now occupied by Shaff sons.

Camanche is Born

Just a year after Elijah Buell had built his cabin in Lyons he had as a guest Dr. George Peck who had emigrated to the Black Hawk country. From there the visitor rode his horse down the banks of the river until he came to a likely place, high above the stream, with a natural slope to the water. "Here" he said "I am going to build myself a home and begin a city" and named the spot Camanche. He drew up a map of town lots then went into Chicago where he sold them and others he gave away presenting the title to mechanics and carpenters who agreed to come to the territory to reside. One young fellow announced he was a shoemaker and received his lot. When the news leaked out that he was an attorney, Dr. Peck gave him a retainer fee and urged him to remain.

The original plat for the town was for twenty ranges of twenty blocks each, eight lots to the block. The first plat was made in 1836. In February of 1837 Dr. Peck's son came, purchased a lot from his father, staked out his holding, built a hewn log house with materials cut from the island opposite and roofed the building with shakes. He and his hired man kept open house for travelers, the first hotel in Camanche.

In the year 1845 August Brion, a French surveyor, made a re-plat of the city using a piece of wild grape vine in lieu of a chain. Engineers say that the wild grape vine is more taut than any other possible measuring rod, that it neither shrinks like a wooden ruler nor stretches as [illegible] made of steel sometimes does. People who came along with ox teams remained to build homes. Business was good. Camanche soon had stores, a bank, schools. It was the site of the first court house in the county. Its levees were a busy place during the open season on the river. It had a large and prosperous distillery, mills and factories. There were churches and social life.

Then came the tornado of June 3, 1860 striking such a blow that the community did not recover until its availability and advantageous site were recognized by the Du Pont industries. This was the worst storm ever recorded in Iowa; 134 persons were killed. More would have lost their lives only that the people had not yet assembled in churches for evening worship. In Clinton there had been a heavy rain but not wind enough to frighten people and residents were in their dooryards when a man on horseback roused the town. "Camanche is destroyed by a tornado and half its people are buried in the ruins. Send down all your doctors and materials to care for the wounded."

In an instant people responded and cars on the railroad were placed in readiness to do, the steamboat Queen City was requisitioned for relief workers and people set out in carriages. As they traveled muddy roads under starry skies they were not able to realize they were going to a destroyed city. As they passed one home a man ran into the road asking help for three injured children that had been brought there.

A writer at that time gave the following story: "There were in the beginning two different tornadoes starting west of the Cedar river about twelve miles apart. They proceeded eastward in separate and well defined courses until they left the Wapsipinicon river when they united. This union took place about three miles south of DeWitt. The southern tornado ceased its advance, enlarged its dimensions until it extended from the earth to the heavens, a large black column. It remained stationary, apparently, for a minute. The lowering clouds rushed to swell its bulk to an enormous size. Then the northern tornado, which had been approaching from the northeast, became absorbed, the huge mass now swelling and bellying like an inflated balloon, rose from the earth with a terrific roar, then descended sweeping onward with unparalleled swiftness and power.

"The storm lasted but two or three minutes but in that time a town of 1200 inhabitants was completely destroyed. One of the most singular features is the absence of furniture from the wreckage. All that remains could be put in a room twelve feet square. The rest must have been blown into the river.

"South of DeWitt twelve cords of wood was deposited in a heap. No wood of this character can be found within several miles of where the wood is. "Before much could be done in the way of relief it was night. A vacant store down near the river held the dead laid out on counters and men were digging graves in the cemetery."

The real history of Iowa, and this means Clinton county also so far as it has to do with the establishment of counties, courts and civic groups, began with its attachment to the Territory of Michigan, June 28, 1834.

The first step in the formation of counties and townships in Iowa occurred on Sept. 26, 1834, when the counties of Dubuque and "Demoine" were established by legislature in the Territory of Michigan.

Two years later the present State of Iowa was included in the Territory of Wisconsin that had been created in a bill that was passed by Congress and was effective July 4, 1836. Gen. Henry Dodge was the first governor. Gen. Dodge was a personal friend of Col. Milo Smith who lived in Clinton in its earliest years. Col. Smith was prominent as a soldier in the days of the Civil War and also aided in forming a wagon train that went from Clinton in 1864 to the gold mines not far from Denver, Colo. F.S. Roberts of Clinton and the late Mark Burghardt of Fulton, later to be the father of Mrs. Frank D. Grant of Clinton, were among the eager young men who made up these early trains across the prairies. Mr. Burghardt made six such trips.

Gen. Dodge ordered that a census be taken in the new territory and it was shown that there were 10,531 persons in the counties of Dubuque and "Demoine." These were the only two counties.

During the second session of the legislature the county of Dubuque was divided and the county of Clinton was named as its southern part. This session convened Nov. 10, 1837 and adjourned Jan. 20, 1838, so the winter of 1837-38 is the birthdate of Clinton county. Iowa remained a territory from 1838 to 1846 and then became a state being admitted to the union on the 28th day of December. Ansell Briggs of Baldwin was the first governor of the state.

Iowa did not have so easy a time becoming a state as these words would indicate. There was a convention October 7, 1844 in Iowa City which prepared a constitution for the new state. Lyman Evans and Ralph Benedict of Clinton county were members of this convention. At an election held August 4, 1845, the people rejected the constitution that had been prepared. Another was written. Henry P. Haun of Clinton county was a member of the convention body that established boundary lines in 1846.

Now let us go back to the beginning of Clinton county. It was on the eleventh day of January, 1840, that the territorial legislature organized the county of Clinton with its county seat at Camanche. Camanche had poled more votes than any other settlement. The first commissioners were Elijah Buell, George Griswold and Robert G. Bourne. They held their first meeting Jan. 5, 1841 in the home of Samuel Doolittle who kept a pioneer hotel in Camanche. Camanche was not a county seat for long. On the 14th day of January, 1841,

QUAD-CITY TIMES

Strangers bring cousins together

Descendants of early Clinton County settlers are united

By Marian Paasch
QUAD-CITY TIMES

HAPPY COUSINS — These folks never knew they were related until a family member began tracing their roots. The group held a reunion in Clinton County, where some friendly strangers put them in touch with yet another cousin. The cousins are, front row, from the left: Betty Leach, Washington; Mary McKenrick, Low Moor; and Jane Flint, Maryland. Back: Ed Leach, Washington; Vera Krafka, North Dakota; Sally Latimer, California; and Geoffrey Howes, Michigan. The centerpiece is a canister that belonged to Mary McKenrick's grandmother. (QUAD-CITY TIMES photo)

LOW MOOR, Iowa — A family search for descendants of the Chandler-Russell families in Camanche, Follets and Low Moor united some first cousins who never had known each other.

At least not until the relatives met at a gathering in Clinton County. While they were here, they discovered another cousin in Low Moor.

The search that brought the cousins together was made possible by some friendly strangers.

It all began 12 years ago, when Sally Latimer, of Fresno, Calif., set out to trace her family roots.

Her first good fortune was in locating her only two first cousins — Jane Flint, of Maryland, and Geoffrey Howes, of Michigan.

She shared that news with her sister, Vera Krafka, of North Dakota, and her brother, Ed Leach, of Washington. The wheels were set in motion for a reunion.

Choosing a place to meet was the next step.

"Since we three were born in Illinois and had heard our ancestors settled from Clinton County, Clinton was the choice for a reunion," Latimer said.

And so they came from Michigan, Maryland, California, Washington and North Dakota, meeting for the first time in Clinton. There, they began searching court records and reading microfilm at the library to search for clues. Low Moor was noted on some records, so the family traveled to Low Moor, pulled into the local cafe and struck up a conversation with patrons.

That is how the traveling cousins learned about Mary McKenrick, of Low Moor, descended from the sought-after Russell ancestors.

Diaries belonging to McKenrick's grandmother dating back to 1884 offered a wealth of information for the searchers.

They found the death date and burial place of their great-grandparents, William and Roxie Russell Chandler. They also determined that the couple is the great aunt and uncle to McKenrick, making them third-generation cousins.

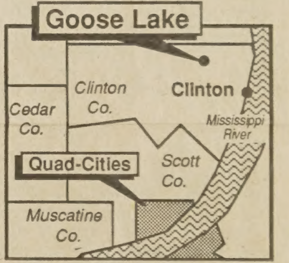
The excitement and findings continued to mount. After a week of searching, all five cousins left Iowa for their respective homes with knowledge and great memories of the many Clinton County people they met.

With the cooperation of Clinton County residents, descendents of the Russell-Chandler families will begin writing their family history. They left this message behind:

"The warmth with which we — total strangers — met everywhere we went was heartwarming, and it says a lot about Iowa and Iowans. We'll not soon forget your beautiful countryside and the good people who befriended us there."

Goose Lake panel targets street names

Betterment group prepares community for switch to 911



GOOSE LAKE, Iowa — Representatives of Goose Lake's Iowa Community Betterment Committee have presented a two-way portable radio including the county mutual aid channel to the local volunteer fire department.

The ICB members also had a lesson in history recently as they tried to establish the original names for city streets, member Donna Manikowski said.

The addresses will assist emergency personnel in finding the location of fires, medical emergencies, law enforcement incidents or other calls for service. They will be required if and when the county converts to Enhanced 911 emergency telephone capability.

An east-west street which had been thought to bear the name "Public Street" actually was found to be "O'Brian Street," named after a family that settled here early.

The name "Public Street" turned out to be just the designation of "a public street" on the plat map.

There were several guesses locally on the original name for what is now Iowa 136, but Manikowski said it has been determined that it was originally "Lyons-Bloomfield Road."

And the north-south road that runs alongside the school cannot be called a street because it only extends for one block, she said. So it is called "School Lane" instead of "School Street."

The street beside the bank, which leads to the school, is "Jackson Boulevard,"and the main north-south street through town is, appropriately, "Main Street."

The street through the housing development in the southeast corner of town is "Emma Court."

The City Council plans to purchase street signs to mark the intersections. The ICB now faces the major task of assigning house numbers, including numbers for areas where houses someday may be built.

AMHERST W. RUSSELL.

Among the prominent and respected citizens of Camanche township stands the gentleman whose name heads this article. Amherst W. Russell was born in Clinton county, New York, December 12, 1832, the son of Nemier and Mary Ann (Lambson) Russell, natives of Vermont. His parents came to this county about 1842 and located in Camanche township, where his father died ten years later and his wife a few years later. They are buried in Shafton cemetery. His grandfather Lambson was a Revolutionary soldier. Nemier and Mary Ann Russell were the parents of nine children, of whom but two survive. Adna E. Russell, now eighty-two, is a resident of California, yet a man of such vigor that he recently came unattended on a visit to his brother, Amherst.

Amherst W. Russell is one of the very few living territorial settlers of Clinton county. He received but a limited education in his boyhood days, and was married on July 14, 1859, to Ann M. Willett, daughter of Court V. and Hannah Willett, natives of New York, of Irish and Scotch descent. Mr. and Mrs. Willett came to Iowa in 1855, and located in Eden township, this county, where Mr. Willett was a farmer. Their entire family consists of five children, of whom Mrs. Russell is the third child. Her father died when sixty-eight, her mother at the age of eighty-six.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell began their mar[illegible]fe on rented land and in 1888 purchased their present home farm of two hundred eleven acres in sections 10 and 15, Eden and Camanche townships. Here they have lived continually since and added to their original purchase one hundred sixty acres, adjoining them, but sold it to their son Friend. Mr. Russell is a member of the Masonic order, and in politics is a Republican. He has been a very successful farmer and owns one of the best cultivated farms in the township. He is well known and stands high in the regard and respect of the citizens of his community.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell are the parents [illegible] one son, Friend E., and one daughter, Mary T., who was married to Walter M. Dannatt, a resident of Low Moor, Iowa.

Friend E. Russell was born October 25, 1867, and died April 23, 1909. He was married in November, 1893, to R. May Bauder, daughter of Samuel C. and Mary E. Bauder, of this county, who, having retired from farming, are now living at Low Moor. Mr. Bauder served as first mayor of Low Moor and served his township as trustee for several years. Friend E. Russell was a man of many splendid qualities, which had gained friends for him wherever known. He was an energetic and successful farmer and a devoted husband and loving father. He was taken just in the prime of a life of seeming great promise; but such are the ways of Providence.

Mrs. R. May Russell resides on her farm of two hundred and forty acres, having her residence just opposite that of Father and Mother Russell, and lives with her two attractive children, Marion, born August 2, 1895, and Irma I, born January 31, 1898. She is a woman of much ability and many accomplishments. She has kept a diary continuously since 1888, a remarkable record, comprising four large books kept in a neat manner and being a valuable record of the period covered by it, nearly a quarter of a century.

The first city officials were as follows: Mayor, Dr. A. B. Ireland; Aldermen: O. A. Anthony, Isaac Hess, E. M. Ward, and A. N. Littig. S. Hyman was recorder, Samuel Doolittle was treasurer, Robert Miller was Marshall, and S. F. Dillon was assessor.

Oscar Anthony was the first postmaster in Camanche. 1842 There was a rural delivery of a twenty-five mile route, established in 1902.

The Masonic Lodge was chartered in June of 1855.

It was in 1859 when Camanche was the leading city in the county, that the first Clinton County fair was held. The fairgrounds was north of what was later the Mudgett place on the road leading to the Dunn farm. There were many agricultural and home exhibits.

The first regularly-educated physician was Dr. William Bassett who came to Camanche in 1841. Dr. J. P. Anthony settled in Camanche in 1850 and Dr. A. B. Ireland in 1852.

The history of Camanche Township is very closely related to that of the city of Camanche. It formerly included the larger part of Eden township, extending west to Brophy's Creek, that stream forming the western boundary line.

Heman B. Shaff came to this area in 1837 from Sodus, New York. The first thing settlers thought about was to get near water and wood. That accounts for the fact that the land adjoining the rivers and creeks was the first to be settled. His claim was recorded in December of 1837. Sodus School named for the New York village was established soon after the Shaff home was built.

W. D. Follett settled in the area in 1838 as did a Mr. Blakely.

Frank Ketchum also came in 1838 and took up a claim to land since known as the Campbell and Hardy farms.

Land in Iowa could be bought for $1.25 an acre instead of $5.00 in Illinois.

Other familiar names in the next few years were Russells, Rowe, Lanning, Cleveland, Shadle, Van Epps, Brophy, Ketchum, Hudson, and Dunn.

Eden Township is [illegible] found on the census.

EDEN TOWNSHIP.

Eden Township first formed a part of Camanche Precinct. In 1856, it was organized as a separate township. This is one of the finest farming townships in the county. It is well watered, its southern boundary being the Wapsie, and it is traversed from north to south near its center by Brophy's Creek. Much attention is given to stock-raising, and some of the finest farms and largest herds of cattle to be found in the county are in Eden Township. Its population, according to the last census, is about one thousand.

This township is less than a Congressional township in area, and includes portions of Townships 80 north, Range 5 east, and 81 north, Ranges 4 and 5 east, the principal area being in 81 north, Range 5 east.

Among the early settlers were James D. Bourne, Robert C. Bourne, John and Thomas Brophy, William Shelden (on the old Abbey place), J. D. and William A. Davidson, who entered the Cherrywood farm; Jonathan Waterbury, who lives on southwest quarter Section 4, Township 80 north, Range 5 east; William Simpson, who settled on the place now owned by the Payne Brothers; William Ten Eyck, who lived on the place now owned by Thomas McCone; John Maxson, who was a surveyor, and located on the place now owned by R. J. Dannatt; William Cope, who still resides on his claim.

In 1851, the English settlers came into this township and vicinity, among whom were Samuel Dannatt and his sons Benjamin, Thomas, Samuel and John, John Bower and his sons Thomas and Humphrey, George Hardy, George Hill and his son Thomas, George Pearson and his two sons Henry and George; and afterward came Thomas B. Dannatt, John B. Dannatt and C. B. Dannatt, John Tate and his sons William, Thomas and Charles, William Canty, George Houston, William Richardson and his sons William, Thomas and Amos. These nearly all came from the village of Killingholme in Lincolnshire, England, and, bringing capital with them, they bought out the original claim-takers and engaged in successful farming. They are thrifty and enterprising, largely engaged in stock-raising and feeding, and their broad fields, fine farm-houses and outbuildings make Eden Township a model one.

The first schoolhouse in the township was a log structure built in 1849, and stood upon the farm now occupied by Peter Hill in the Union district, which comprised in its limits then nearly the whole township. There are now nine school districts in the township, all being provided with neat and commodious school-buildings.

There are but two churches in the township—the Methodist Church at Low Moor and a chapel at Malone, which was erected under the auspices of the Baptist Church at De Witt. Low Moor is a post village, and is situated on Section 22, Township 81, Range 51, in Eden Township.

Low Moor is an outgrowth of the Chicago & North-Western Railway, and is a station on that road. It was surveyed and platted in the spring of 1858, the original proprietors being J. Tong, Wilson Mudgett and Milo Smith. The first house was built by William Gulick; the second, by Richard Wagner, and the third by Roswell B. Millard, who was the first station agent and Postmaster. The post office was established in August, 1857, on the opening of the railroad and before the platting, but the town had been projected and its name selected. George Weston, P. J. Schuyler, Charles Seward and John M. Haskill have succeeded to the honors and emoluments of the postmastership, the latter being the present incumbent. The population is about two hundred. A neat frame school-building, with commodious grounds in a beautiful maple grove, accommodates its "Young Americas," the attendance at which is about seventy.

The Methodist Church is a small, but very tasty frame building, in the Gothic style, and seats about four hundred. It was erected in 1869, at a cost of about $3,600.

Religious services were held in the "Jones" Schoolhouse in the early days. It was then in Camanche, in what is now District No. 1, in Eden. All denominations held their meetings here. In 1858, a class was organized, and, at this date, the organization of the Low Moor Methodist Church can be properly reckoned. When the railroad was opened and a population began to gather there, this was thought to be a more central point, and at first the meetings were held in the depot until the schoolhouse was erected in 1867, which was occupied for religious services until the completion of the church. The Church now numbers about fifty members. It is at present attached to Camanche, and the Pastor is Rev. W. E. McCormac.

A stock company own and operate a steam grist-mill. The building was formerly a grain warehouse. The machinery was put in in the spring of 1878. It has two runs of stones.

Mr. Dannatt, in erecting a fine store-building, provided the people of Low Moor with a commodious public hall on the second floor.

MURDERS.

In the fall of 1848, a murder was committed in Center Township. John Foley, an Irishman, was murdered by a neighbor known as Yankee Grable. Grable had borrowed a yoke of oxen from Foley. The latter sent a boy for the cattle, and Grable, for some reason, refused to return them. Foley then went to Grable's and demanded his cattle. An altercation took place between them, during which Foley made some demonstration of a threatening character, upon which Grable seized a stake from a hay-rack and with one blow killed him on the spot. Grable was arrested, indicted and tried, but was cleared. He then left the State and lived a number of years in Missouri, but finally returned to this county, where he lived in Olive Township until his death a few years since. Hiram Brown was the Sheriff at the time, and, after his indictment, he permitted him to go at large upon his honor. The man was worthy of his confidence and appeared at Court at the proper time for his trial.

Ten years later, or in 1858, another murder took place in this township. It occurred at the stone schoolhouse on election day. A young man named Quick had a difficulty with Thomas Kelly at a saloon at Ramessa, and, on the day of election came to the voting-place and an altercation ensued; after a few words, Kelly drew a dirk-knife and stabbed Quick to the heart, killing him instantly. He fled but was pursued by citizens and captured by Mr. Garrett Davenpeck and others. He was indicted, tried and brought in "not guilty."

SUMMARY OF RUSSELL ANCESTORS THROUGH OCTOBER, 1989

Jane (Howes) Flint, Geoffrey Howes, Vera (Leach) Krafka, Sally (Leach) Latimer, Edward James Leach, Jr.

Our great great grandparents, Nehemiah H. Russell, born August 24, 1785, married January 1, 1815, died Spetember 20, 1843, Camanche Township, Clinton County, Iowa, and Mary Ann (Lampson) Russell, born July 25, 1785, Vermont?, died April 6, 1958, Camanche Township, Clinton County, Iowa, are buried in Shafton Cemetery between Follett and Low Moor, Iowa.

They arrived in Clinton County, Iowa, about 1842 with their children. A list of their children taken from bible entries are shown below: Mary Abigail Russell, born 1816, married Heman B. Shaff, died 1856; Thomas A. Russell, born 1818, apparently died young, date not legible; Lydia E. Russell aka Emeline L. Russell, born 1820, married Waldo Parkhurst 1844, died ?; Roxa A. Russell, born 1822, died 1824; Friend A. Russell, born 1825, married Mary E. Gilbert 1853, died 1877; Adna E. Russell, born 1828, married Mathilda J. Brown 1869, died 1916, California; Amherst W. Russell, born 1831, Clinton County, New York, married Ann M. Willet 1859, died 1915, Camanche Township, Clinton Co., Iowa; Thomas A. H.? Russell, born 1836, married Martha E. Willet 1869, died 1899, Clinton Co., Iowa; Roxie A. A. (Roxanna), born June 24, 1840, near Syracuse, New York, married William M. Chandler, January 12, 1864, Clinton Co., Iowa, died October 10, 1894, Clinton Co. Iowa.

Obituaries for both William M. Chandler and Roxanna (Russell) Chandler stated that they were interred at the Camanche Cemetery (Rosehill?). We were unable to find marked graves for William M. and Roxanna Chandler. It appears as though they were buried near the graves of their two daughters who died very young. Their daughter's grave sites were marked.

A short biography in a history of Clinton County, Iowa, gave the following information about Amherst W. Russell. "He was born Clinton County, New York, December 12, 1832, son of Nehemiah and Mary Ann (Lampson) Russell, natives of Vermont, buried Shafton Cemetery." His grave marker included these words as part of the inscription, "Native of New York".

The 1830 census gives the location for Nehemiah H. Russell and his family as Fort Covington, Franklin County, New York. The 1840 census gave their location as Williamson, Wayne County, New York.

Roxanna Russell and William M. Chandler had the following children: Mary E. Chandler, born 1867, died 1873 at age 5 years, 8 months; Luella C. Chandler, born 1870, died 1870, age 6 days, daughters buried Rosehill Cemetery; Lester Chandler, born 1866, married Mary I. Chapman, died 1930, Hennepin County, Minnesota; William Abraham Chandler, born 1871, Whiteside County, Illinois, married Lulu A. Jones 1893, Clinton County, Iowa, died 1920, Hennepin County, Minnesota. Lulu A. Jones, William A. Chandler's wife, was born 1873-1874, Sac County, Iowa, died October 10, 1962, Wayne County, Michigan.

The Russell Family in Virginia belief will be added as it occurs.

Nehemiah Russell signed himself "N. Russell" with the letter "N" intertwined with the letter "R" of Russell in a way that resembles the cypher of "W. Russell"; a cypher that appears on a series of signatures by William (Sheriff) Russell across the years.

After 1712 there is a gap of almost forty years, and then in the Virginia Gazette in 1751 this advertisement was printed -

"To be sold, on Tuesday, the 31st Day of December, next, at my ordinary, in Orange County, several valuable Slaves (belonging to the Estate of Nehemiah Russell, deceas'd) for ready Money by William Russell, Executor" (#18)

From this limited supply of facts a few inferences can be drawn. In order to sell land in 1700 Nehemiah Russell must have been of age on that date, and therefore born not later than 1679, and of course possibly sooner than that. If born in 1679 he would have been 72 in 1751, an age well within the bounds of probability, but whether it was the original Nehemiah who died in 1751, or his son of the same name is debatable.

Regardless, whether the Nehemiah Russell named in 1700 and 1712 and again in 1751 was the same man, or two different men, still there is no reason to think that William (Sheriff) Russell would serve as executor for a man named Russell who was not a relative. The similarity in the signature of "N. Russell" and "W. Russell", and his business deals with Edward Sadler and Robert Webb are additional assurance of kinship. The most plausible connection is for Nehemiah Russell of 1700 to be the uncle of William (Sheriff) Russell. Nothing else meets the requirements of the picture so well; but whether the Nehemiah of 1751 is still his uncle, or has been replaced by a son of the same name, the argument is not affected. Nehemiah of 1700 still qualifies as his uncle.

Therefore, the Russell family can no longer be attributed to a single emigrant arriving in 1710. It has been shown to have three brothers, Peter Russell, "X" Russell and Nehemiah Russell, who were all adult by the turn of the century, and therefore born between 1672 and 1679. This approximation would permit either Dr. John or John (Rappahannock) Russell to have been their father, and of course there may have been another brother and some sisters with names unknown at present. Thus it has been established that the Russells are an old Virginia family with genealogical proof to 1697, and with increasing evidence marking a strong trail back to John (Chief) Russell as the American founder in 1608.

"X" RUSSELL must have been born not later than 1678 in order to have been 21 years old in 1699, and the father of William (Sheriff) Russell circa 1700, and of course an earlier date is always possible. Having married in 1699 or sooner, "X" Russell lived long enough to be the father of five known children, (William, Peter, Sarah, Elizabeth and Mary), and with a sixth child quite probable. Estimating ten years as the minimum period in ernment was made, was elected the first mayor of the city; William L. Marcy was the first recorder; the first aldermen and assistant aldermen were—first ward, George Allen, alderman, Amos Salisbury, assistant; second ward, Hugh Peebles, alderman, John Loudon, assistant; third ward, Townsend McCoun, alderman, Gurdon Corning, assistant; fourth ward, Stephen Ross, alderman, Henry Mallory, assistant; fifth ward, Lemuel Hawley, alderman; sixth ward, Philip Hart, jr., alderman; the first chamberlain was David Buel; the first city surveyor was William McManus; the first city clerk was William M. Bliss; the first chief engineer of the city fire department was William S. Parker; all of whom held office in 1816 in pursuance of the privileges accorded by the first city charter.

The first Sunday schools organized in Troy were those formed by the Troy Sunday School association in the summer of 1816. This association was organized July 8 with these officers: President, Joseph Russell; vice-president, Silas Covell; treasurer, John Loudon; secretary, David Buel. In them were represented the Presbyterian, Episcopal, Methodist and Baptist denominations. The schools were undenominational and the exercises consisted principally of singing, prayers, exhortation, reading, spelling and primary Bible study, that is, verses of Scripture were committed to memory in concert.

The Troy Lyceum of Natural History was formed November 9, 1818, by the election of these officers: President, John D. Dickinson; first vice-president, James Dalaby; second vice president, David Buel; recording secretary, Obed Rice; corresponding secretary, Dr. Amatus Robbins; treasurer, Albert Pawling Heartt; curators, Dr. Moses Hale, Dr. Ira M. Wells and Dr. Amatus Robbins. It was the first society of its kind in America and among its members were some of the best known scientists and authors in the United States. The society was incorporated two years after its organization, March 7, 1820.

The first person to engage in the manufacture of pianos in New York State was Joshua Thurston, who came from London, England, and settled in Troy in 1819. His manufactory was a great novelty and attracted many visitors from all sections of the State.

In July, 1819, an event occurred which stirred the people of the city of Troy to widespread expressions of great indignation. Colonel Albert Pawling, who had been appointed the first mayor of the city, was a man beloved and confided in by all, regardless of party. He had been one of the greatest benefactors of the village and city and at the time

RULE. See Rule.

RUMBALL, DANIEL, Salem 1644-1665, blacksmith, had 40 acres of ld. laid out 4 Feb. 1644, was fr. 1651. THOMAS, Stratford, came to Boston in the Truelove, 1635, aged 22, was out in the Pequot war next yr. under Lieut. Gardiner, so we may believe he was of Saybrook at that time. His d. Bethia m. 12 June 1661, Robert Stevens of Norwalk, as Hall 187 tells.

RUMERY, RUMBERRY, or RUMMERY, SIMON, Enfield, m. Feb. 1692, Sarah Fairman, had Sarah, b. Feb. 1693; Simon, 1695; Ebenezer, 1701; and John, 1704; perhaps more. See Hinman 18.

RUNDLE, WILLIAM, Greenwich 1672.

RUNDLETT, or RUNLET, CHARLES, Exeter, tak. by the Ind. 1676, [illegible] and was drown. 1 Aug. 1709.

An elegy on the d. of Daniel is preserv. ELIEZUR, Boston, goldsmith, s. of Rev. John of Hadley, d. late in 1690, unm. as we judge, for his will of 26 Dec. in that yr. names not w. or ch. but gives all to Rebecca, d. of his br. Jonathan of Barnstable, and Ch. J. Sewall notes his funeral on 2 Jan. foll. GEORGE, Hingham 1636, came in the Elizabeth from London, 1635, aged 19, was of Hawkhurst, Co. Kent, m. 14 Feb. 1640, Jane, wid. of Philip James, had Mary, bapt. 1 Apr. 1641; Eliz. Feb. 1643; and Martha, 9 Oct. 1645; rem. to Scituate next yr. had, also, George and Samuel, b. to him by first w. and he d. prob. at Hingham, says Deane, bef. 1668. GEORGE, Scituate, s. of the preced. m. a Rogers, d. of John of Duxbury, d. 1675, leav. s. George and John. GEORGE, Boston 1679, youngest s. prob. of William, fifth Earl of Bedford, and created first Duke of B. 1694, had been bred at Magdalen Col. Oxford, as Wood's Fasti shows, taking his A. M. Feb. 1667, by order of our Gen. Ct. 4 Feb. 1680, adm. freem. "if he please to accept," and the rec. says that 13 Feb. foll. he took the o. bef. the Gov. and Assist. but prob. went home bef. the execut. in 1683, of his br. the celebr. martyr, Lord William, m. Mary Pendleton, the d. of a London merch. and d. 1692, leav. s. William, who d. unm. See the note in Hutch. I. 332, and Collins's Peerage, Vol. I. 268, of Ed. 5. HENRY, Weymouth 1639, made his will 28 Jan. 1640, pro. 9 Oct. foll. names w. Jane, and only ch. Eliz. HENRY, Ipswich 1665, said then to be 55 yrs. old. He was possib. of Salisbury 1652, perhaps of Marblehead 1668–1674, tho. I think this was much younger man, the br. of John, wh. in his will, 26 Aug. 1633, gave him portion of his est. A HENRY of New Hampsh. on the gr. jury 1684, may have been his s. JAMES, New Haven 1643 or earlier, d. 21 Jan → 1673, and his wid. Mary d. 1674. He is thot. to have had s. William, 21 Aug. perhaps b. in Eng. the f. of Noadiah. ‡* JAMES, Charlestown, eldest s. of Hon. Richard, m. Mabel, d. of Gov. Haynes of Conn. had Mabel, b. 1 May 1665, perhaps at Hartford, and may have d. there; James, bapt. 5 Apr. 1668; Mabel, again, 23 Jan. 1670; Richard, 17 Mar. 1672, d. at 17 yrs.; John, 29 June 1673; Maud, 25 June 1676; Mary, 10 Oct. 1680; and Daniel, b. 30 Nov. 1685; but the last two were by sec. w. Mary, d. of Henry Wolcott the sec. was freem. 1668, rep. 1679, treas. of the Col. and an Assist. 1680 and onwards, named counsel. in the new chart. was a judge of Pro. and treas. of the Prov. He had third w. Abigail, d. of George Curwin, wid. of Eleazer Hathorne, and d. 28 Apr. 1709. JASON, Cambridge, s. of William, m. 27 May 1684, Mary Hubbard, had Hubbard, b. a. 1687, and perhaps more. JOHN, Dorchester, d. 26 Aug. 1633, and in his nuncup. will, gave to his brs. Henry R. and Thomas Hyatt, half his est. and half to the ch. of D. and set free his man serv. JOHN, Cambridge, freem. 3 Mar. 1636, town clk. in 1645, constable in 1648, brought, no doubt, s. John, b. a. 1626, H. C. 1645, rem. soon aft. to Wethersfield, where had raged a very unpleasant quarrel betw. Rev. Henry Smith and a part of his people, end. in 1648 by his death. He next yr. m. Dorothy, the wid. of Mr. Smith, and the s. succeed. him as min. By former w. he had also Philip, b. perhaps in Eng. perhaps at our Cambridge; rem. 1659 to Hadley, and d. 8 May 1680, aged 83. Hinman calls him a rep. 1646–8, but tho. he says nothing else of him, p. 70, I suppose that is wrong. In neither of those yrs. does Trumbull's Col. Rec. so honor him, indeed he was not made freem. bef. 1655, nor was he ever so chosen. If my conjecture would benefit the eye of a reader of those rec. he might see the name that misled H. to be John Bissel, sometimes Byssel, wh. was more than half the time that R. liv. in Conn. one of the reps. JOHN, Charlestown 1640, one of the first sett. of Woburn, freem. 1644, was shoemaker and deac. had w. Eliz. wh. d. 16 Dec. 1644, s. John, perhaps b. in Eng. and d. Mary, wh. m. 2 Dec. 1659, Timothy Brooks; and no others are ment. in his will of 27 May 1676, five days bef. he d. But he had m. sec. w. 13 May 1645, Eliz. Baker, perhaps d. of William of Charlestown, and she d. 17 Jan. 1690. Some distinct. is justly claim. for him as one of the founders of the first Bapt. ch. of Boston, 1669, gather. first in Noddle's isl. some yrs. earlier, and was its elder or deac. JOHN, Marshfield, 1643–51. JOHN, Wethersfield, s. of John of the same, b. in Eng. m. at Hartford, 28 June 1649, Mary d. of John Talcott, had John, b. 23 Sept. 1650 (by the false rec. in Geneal. Reg. XII. 197, said to be bapt. that day, wh. was Monday), wh. d. at 20 yrs. and Jonathan, 1655, H. C. 1675, but this s. may have been by sec. w. Rebecca, d. of Thomas Newberry of Windsor, wh. d. 21 Nov. 1688, aged 57. In 1650 he was made freem. but aft. long controv. that may seem to have been the pastor's inherit. from his predecess. in 1659, he had rem. to Hadley, and carr. both s. with major part of the ch. had Samuel, b. 4 Nov. 1660, H. C. 1681; Eleazer, 8 Nov. 1663, wh. d. bef. his f. Daniel, 8 Feb. 1666, d. next yr. and he d. 10 Dec. 1692, aged 66. At his ho. in Hadley were long conceal. the regicides, Whalley and Goffe, wh. d. there some yrs. apart, and both corpses were bur. in his ground close to the foundat. of his ho. where, to contradict an absurd tradit. of rem. of the bones to New Haven, the authentic remains were, a few yrs. since ascert. by rem. of the cellar wall for the railroad. JOHN, Woburn, s. of John of the same, b. perhaps in Eng. a shoemaker, m. 31 Oct. 1661, Sarah Champney, perhaps d. of John of Cambridge, had John, b. 1 Aug. 1662; Joseph, 15 Jan. 1664; Samuel, 3 Feb. 1667, d. at 10 mos. Sarah, 10 Feb. 1671; Eliz. 19 Feb. 1673; Jonathan, 6 Aug. 1675; and Thomas, 5 Jan. 1678. After the loss of their teacher, Gould, by the first Bapt. ch. in Boston, to wh. he had unit. hims.

earlier than his f. perhaps 1666, he was engag. and rem. to B. was ord. 28 July 1679, but d. 22 Dec. 1680. His wid. ret. to W. and d. 25 Apr. 1696. John, Cambridge 1652, by w. THE RUSSELLS OF NEW BEDFORD, DESCENDANTS OF RALPH RUSSELL.

It is stated by Baylies, in his History of New Plymouth, Massachusetts, (vol. ii., p. 268,) that Ralph Russell, who came from Pontypool, Monmouthshire, England. (noted for its iron manufactures,) was the progenitor of the Russells, of New Bedford. He first appears at Taunton, in 1652, where, in connection with James and Henry Leonard, he erected the first iron works in North America. Ricketson (History of New Bedford) says that Ralph Russell removed to Dartmouth, and was one of the earliest settlers of that town, the lands on which it stands having been purchased of the Indians, by William Bradford, in 1652. The territory so purchased, once known as Dartmouth, included the present townships of Westport, Dartmouth, New Bedford and Fairhaven. He died soon after 1652, as his son, John Russell, Senior, appears first in the early records as a proprietor. The latter died February 13, 1694-5; and Dorothy, his wife, December 18, 1687. He was a Representative to the General Court of Massachusetts, in 1665. He had a son, Joseph, born May 6, 1650; died December 11, 1739: and another, John, Junior, who died March 20, 1695-6. Joseph settled within what is now the limits of the city of New Bedford. His grandson, Joseph Russell, third, fourth son of Joseph, Junior, was born tenth month, 8th. 1719; died tenth month, 16th, 1804. He is considered the founder of New Bedford, and to him is also attributed the honor of being the pioneer of the whale-fishery in that place. It is well authenticated that he had pursued this business as early as the year 1755. "As the village where he lived increased," writes Mr. Ricketson, "it was thought necessary to give it a particular designation from the rest of the old townships; and upon a public occasion Joseph Rotch suggested that the name should be 'Bedford,' in honor of Joseph Russell, who bore the family name of the Duke of Bedford, which was readily adopted by the rest of the inhabitants, and the old gentleman was afterwards known as 'the Duke.'"

Early territory known as Dartmouth included present Townships of Westport, Dartmouth,
New Bedford, + Fairhaven (1878)

GIDEON ALONZO RUSSELL.

This venerable and highly honored citizen of Lyons, Clinton county, is eminently entitled to conspicuous mention in this history, owing to the fact that he is a pioneer of this section, having seen and participated in the development of the same from the early days. The life he has led is one of commendation and worthy of emulation by younger generations, for it has been led along lines of usefulness and integrity. He is an interesting talker on the early conditions here and of the subsequent development of the county. He has been successful in the various lines of endeavor to which he has addressed himself and is worthy of the universal esteem in which he is held.

Mr. Russell hails from the old Empire state and is a scion of a sterling family of the same, his birth having occurred in Otsego county, New York, January 25, 1828. He is the son of Gideon H. and Waitstill (Pierce) Russell. His father was born in the state of New York and there he grew to maturity, was educated in the old-time schools and married,—in fact, spent his life there engaged in agricultural pursuits, and he and his wife died in that state.

Gideon A. Russell was reared on the home farm, where he assisted with the general work about the place during his boyhood days, and when a young man he learned the carpenter's trade, and when twenty-six years old, in 1854, he came to Clinton county, Iowa, settling at Lyons, and established a sash and door shop, which he maintained for a period of thirty-five years and was very successful, enjoying an excellent and ever increasing business. He turned out a very fine grade of work and was very careful to please his patrons in every respect, always honest and obliging in his dealings. In 1861 he built and established a factory for making sashes and doors, also dressing lumber, his place of business being next to the present public square of Lyons.

In 1889 Mr. Russell began dealing in farm loans and real estate business, and in a small way he continues the same at present. He has been successful in this line of endeavor and now in the declining years of his life he finds himself very comfortably situated in his cozy home at No. 300 South Fifth street, Lyons. Politically, he is independent, and while he has always taken more than a passing interest in political and public affairs, he has not been an office-seeker.

Mr. Russell was married on March 16, 1854, to Mary Pier, of Otsego county, New York, who was born January 5, 1838. To this union five children were born, namely: George E., who died in 1874; Alice, who died in 1860; Ada, who died in 1870; Fannie J., the wife of Alonzo Firman, of Lyons; Fred A., who is a well-known author and lives in New York. The mother of these children passed to her rest on November 14, 1871, and Mr. Russell was married on January 21, 1874, to Emaline Kellogg, of Otsego county, New York. To the last union two children were born, Lynn K., of Clinton, Iowa, and Gertrude, wife of Frank Albam, living in Marshalltown, Iowa.

LOUIS J. BORMANN.

One of the substantial citizens of Lyons, Iowa, is the gentleman to a review of whose life work the attention of the reader is now called, Louis J. Bormann, well known grocer, who, though a young man, has forged ahead and is winning the confidence and esteem of those with whom he has dealings. While advancing his own interests, he does not lose sight of the fact that it is his duty to lend his influence in furthering the interests of his community.

Mr. Bormann was born in Lyons, Clinton county, December 9, 1887. He is the son of Jacob Bormann, who was born in Germany on the banks of "the lovely castled Rhine river." He was a stock buyer by occupation and he spent most of his life in America, having come to our shores with his parents when twelve years of age. They located on a farm near Sugar Creek, Iowa, where Jacob was reared, educated and where he worked on the home place. When he reached man's estate he moved to Lyons, Iowa, and started a grocery store in the Hannaher block. He met with success, but finally sold out and became a grain and stock buyer and did an extensive business in this direction. He served three years as a soldier in the Civil war, being a member of Company K, Twenty-sixth Iowa Volunteer Infantry, and he was wounded four times, but recovered. He saw some hard service and was in many great battles, being also with Sherman on his march to the sea. He was a German Catholic in religious matters. His death occurred when his son, Louis J., was a small lad.

Louis J. Borman has three brothers and two sisters, namely: M. B. lives in Clinton; John J. is a traveling salesman; Frank J. is railroading; Mrs. Christina Schoenfeller; Mrs. Lena M. Anderson.

The subject was educated in St. Bonica's parochial school at Lyons, and after leaving the school room to begin life for himself he started out as a clerk in C. H. Wulf's retail grocery store in Lyons, remaining there three years. He then spent one year in a dry goods store and one and one-half years in a tea and coffee store as clerk. All the while he was laying up a
